Current Leadership Responsibilities

I have been the Deputy Headteacher at St Edward's for three years and was appointed Headteacher for September earlier this term. In my role as Deputy Headteacher I am responsible for managing the curriculum across school, I am currently developing our wider curriculum in preparation for the changes to the inspection framework. I have led a number of subjects across school, including History and Geography more recently, identified as a strength in our recent inspection.

I am also responsible for leading Key Stage Two and have taught Year 5 and Year 6 for the last nine years.
